Note for the Reader

The present is the sixth volume of the Registers of the Diocese of St. Asaph which has been completed by the Shropshire Parish Register Society. It contains the fourth, fifth, and sixth volumes of the voluminous Registers of Oswestry.

In this volume the Registers are not printed verbatim et literatim, but in abstract form, all mere verbiage being omitted, though every fact is recorded, and all occurrences, remarkable events, &c., given in the Registers are printed in full. The following abbreviations have been adopted :—

For the transcript of the present Volume our thanks are due to Miss Rachel Leighton, who has also collated the transcript with the original Registers, and has passed the proofs through the press.

In this Volume there is a noticeable absence of "ap" names, so frequent in the earlier Volumes, and the names will be found indexed under the surnames throughout, save in the case of a few Welsh names, where they are indexed under the first Christian name.

Thanks are due to the late and present Vicars of Oswestry for leave to print the Register, and for facilities afforded in transcription and collation.

Churchwardens' Account Book, 1577—1608
(and eight later volumes, 1614 to 1816.)

This third Volume of the Shropshire Register Society does not cover the same ground as the corresponding MS. Volume, but comprises Registers Nos. IV., V. and VI. in the Parish Register Abstract, which describes them thus :—

Nos. IV., V. Bap. 1727—1779; Mar. 1727—1754.
No. VI. Bap. 1780—1812.

Volume IV. is a volume containing 52 parchment leaves, in boards, 12 by 16 inches. It contains entries of Marriages and Baptisms from May, 1727, to October, 1748, and is in good condition. On a paper leaf between two parchment leaves of the year 1735 is a list of Churchwardens for the years 1723 to 1768 (see pages 65-68). This seems to indicate that some fresh parchment leaves were bought in 1735, and bound into the volume, the paper leaf being the fly-leaf at the end of the earlier volume. Some marriages for the year 1736 are entered at the end of the combined volume (see pages 171-173), which again indicates that this Volume IV. was originally in two portions.

Volume V. is a parchment book in good condition, and contains entries of Baptisms from 1748 to 1779, and of Marriages from 1748 to 1754, the last entry being on 1 May, 1754, after which date separate Marriage Registers begin.

Volume VI., which contains entries of Baptisms from May, 1779, to December, 1812, is a parchmen book, in excellent condition, and well bound, size 9 inches by 13 inches. It is marked No. 7. There is nothing of special interest or note in this Volume. The list of "paupers baptized" from 1783 to 1789, which comes at the end of the Volume (see pages 570-580), does not necessarily imply poverty, but that the parents refused to pay the Government Tax.

For the pedigrees of local families with uncommon names these Registers will be valuable, but for those with common ones there will be a difficulty, as the townships only are given and not the place-names within them. In some instances indeed the relationship to then well-known parishioners is given, as mother, brother-in-law, cousin, as in "1690, May 7, William son of Mr. Edward Roberts, Minister (Mr. Jones ye Vicar's wife's brother-in-law)"; and in others their aliases. One entry is probably unique: "1703, May 29, Robert Vaughan of Cricketh yeoman (being the 5th husband and the 5th wife) and Mary Bennet were married." Among the Burials we find still-born children registered and several persons who were buried in other parishes; Jasper Don Medo (Mr. James Hanmer's black), "a pauper that was sent from London," reminiscent of the law of settlement, one in 1714 "under excommunication," "a young youth," "a great carrier of Llanvilling parish," "a creeple," "a stranger that dyed on the mountain," "one who raisd out of bed from her husband . . . . . and went out nacked to Morda and Drowned her self." Many accidents are recorded, e.g. "dyed by ye damp" (fire damp), "a soldier that fell into ye Red Lion Drawell and was drowned," "dyed of a strok by a bow of a tree," "suffocated after drinking of brandy," three "who dyed by ye fall of a gable end of brickwork that fell on them at Aston," one "y^t fell of a load of barley on ye grins of ye pithfork at ye ward barn in Legg Street;" one is specified as "a very honest man." Among the more prominent appear:—

Mr. Richard Edwards late Vicar of Oswestry. Certificate (of Burial in woollen).
Edward Lloyd of Llanvorda Esq. died 26th July buried 30th 1681.
Mrs. Margaret Lloyd of Goetre (? Meifod) 1707).
Robert Lloyd of Aston Esq. Lord of Whittington 1709.
Edward Kynaston of Measbury, Esq. Mayor of this Towne 1710.
Mr. Thomas Owens Vicar 1713.
Mr. Daniel Pool chief schoolmaster 1716.
Mr. John Hanmer Trevor Esq. 1728.
Walter Griffiths Esq. of Brongain (Llanfechain) 1733.
Mrs. Jane Vaughan of Trederwen (Llandrinio) 1736.
Rev. Mr. Richard Price of Fernhill 1738.

While "Esqr." indicates the right to bear arms, it is not easy to say whether "Mr." implies professional rank, family connexion, or municipal office. The trades and occupations include chanlour (chandler), chirothecarius, pistor (miller), oyster seller, scurvygrass seller, wood-collier, and a female "bone-setter of Sweeney." Uncommon personal names include, for men—Brogyntyn, Kylynyn, Crispin, Grave, Gawen, Shewring and Sacheverel; for women, Berllenia, Grisel, Meallt (Mallt, i.e. Magdalen), Methenia, Pleasant, Shonet and Vinsensha. Aliases and nicknames are frequent, as Bladur bren, Goe mawr (big smith), Fritt, Rip, Pappistes, Pelmel, Tump, Trwyngoch (red nose), Tegwch and Y^e Live Taylor. Among curious surnames are found—Fairmaide, Jonesfeare, Mackfashion, Shutta and Shirru. Of the Place-names it will suffice to mention Clawdd du, Garis, Mixen Hall, Nantywyber and Pontrhedyfudde; and the following old Inns of the Town—Ye Armes, Cock and Gard, Y^e Hogg and Armour, Y^e Green Man and Y^e Plume of Feathers. In fact, there is abundant material in these Registers for reconstructing the family, social and civic life of Oswestry in the early eighteenth century.

James Donne, in his House, Oswestry, and was Christd. in the Church of Oswestry 9 July, 1802, at the same time that his younger brother was bapd., and that this entry, by some inadvertence at the time, was omitted. The Affidavit is endorsed by a note in the handwriting of the Rev. T. Salwey Vicar of Oswestry, as having been received from "James Donne, D.D., on Feb. 27th, 1836, and hath annexed it to the Parish Registers of Oswestry as the only proof at present existing of the baptism of the witness named, John Donne. Signed—T. Salwey, Vicar of Oswestry."]
